

BANGER EARLY WHIG AND SINGER

BY BOUTELLE & BURR. SINGLES DOPP.
THREE DRAWS.

SPECIAL BARGAIN
IN
LADIES' FRENCH KID BOOTS.
FOR THIS WINTER.

These Boots are worth $4.50.
Price this week, $3.50
G. A. HUTCHINS & CO.,
27 MAIN STREET.

BANGOR, MAINE.

BANGOR, ME TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1890.

VOL. LVII.—NUMBER 262.

Stir and Soothe.

TO BUILD A NEW MILL.

BREWER LOCALS.

NON-PARTISAN TEMPERANCE.

DAILY ESTABLISHED 1884—WEEKLY 1890

TERMS OF ADVERTISING:

For one square, two inscriptions, $1.00.
For one square, one inscription, 75 cents.
Each week's advertisement, 50 cents.
For half-square, three times, 50 cents.
For one square, one week, 1.25 cents.
For one square, three weeks, 1.50 cents.
Each week's continuation, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES:

$1.00 per square for three weeks—$1.25 per square for continuation.

Dwarf Copy—Advertisers inserted at the rate of "Special Rates."

Advertisers under the head of "Business Advertisements," will pay 10 cents extra for solid names, 10c for each line of copy.

ADVERTISEMENTS, where the name of insertion is not specifically designated, will be construed until otherwise directed.

ADVERTISEMENTS contained three lines or less at five cents apiece; four lines a cent, one-half price; one-half a cent, one-third price.

Entered at the Post Office as Second-Class Matter.

IF LATELY UNPAID SEE THIRD PAGE.

PRICE ADVANCED

On Stockings On Very Shorty.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3. The Manhattan Oil Company, one of the leaders of the independent organization, has decided this morning advanced the price of Buckeye oil from $9 to $12 cents. All other independent companies followed suit and the Standard will probably meet the advance.

THOROUGHLY KILLED.

EIGHTEEN Bullets Found in a Horse's Body.

ELKHORN, W. Va., Nov. 3. The killing of "Bud" McCoy, the leader of the notorious McCoy gang, at Towns Camp, Virginia, was an event by no means unexpected by the Hells Angels, who had the latest excitement in the country and it is believed that the McCoy crowd will avenge his death. Eighteen bullets were found in his body. He is known to have killed eight men, but always escaped punishment.

THE OLDEST INHABITANT.

Death at the Age of Over One Hundred.

MILFORD, N. H., Nov. 3. Mrs. Charles Dow died at Milford, Sunday, aged one hundred and eight years, having lived twenty-three days. She was the oldest inhabitant. She was a native of Concord.

WILL VOTE AT HOME.

President Harrison Goes to Indianapolis.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. The President left Washington this morning for Indianapolis. He will arrive there to-morrow morning and will remain there just long enough to cast his vote for the Republican ticket and to make a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. McKinley. He will leave Indianapolis in the evening and reach Washington Wednesday afternoon.

OLD COLONY DISASTER.

Lebanon People to Receive Damages.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3. Louisville people are to receive damages for the explosion of the Old Colony road at Quincy Mass., last August and the relatives of those killed will receive about $75,000 by the company just erected.

PETITION FOR CLEMENCY.

Received at Ottawa's Biscuit's Case.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 3. The petition transcribed from England by Sir Charles Tupper to the Governor General, praying for executive clemency for Bircoll, has arrived here. It contains above three hundred signatures, mostly of business men and clergymen. No titled names appear on it.

A FEAR OF HIS LIFE.

Consulate-General Urges Protection is demanded.

Key West, Fla., Nov. 3. The Mayor of the city has received a communication from the Spanish consul here, informing him of the absolute necessity of his retiring from the consulate, as there is no guarantee for his life against the Cuban refugees in the city. The consul states that the consulate will remain housed until the Government of the United States will guarantee to the government of Spain the privileges due it.

MIAMI.

Alleged Discovery of an Anti-Catholic Society.

DETROIT, Nov. 3. The discovery of a strong anti-Catholic society, whose sole object is the defeat of all Catholics running for office in the present election, has caused a widespread commotion and a most bitter feeling among religious people. The name of the society is the " Sons of Amer. 'ca."

THE SUGAR TRUST.

Is Being Handled Down.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. Judge Pratt handed down his decision in the sugar trust case in New York to-day, in which he says a recovery is proper and necessary, and that not only one but two receivers should be appointed. He gives the two parties to the suit until Thursday to agree upon two persons to be appointed receivers.

CONTROVERSY ABREYEN.

Over the Ownership of the Mosquito Coast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. Advice from Panama that the country had been turned Colombian and Nicaraguan as to the ownership of the Mosquito coast. Suggestions have been made to submit the matter to the United States for arbitration.

A STRANGE PROCEEDING.

For Photographers' Witless.

TIFFIN, Ohio, Nov. 3. During the proceedings in the conspiracy trial here to-day, Patrick O'Brien attempted to photograph a witness who was testifying before the court. He was then interrupted by an attorney for the defense, who advised him of contempt of court, and sentenced him to one week's imprisonment. The witness made no objection to having his photograph taken.

INJURED IN A BLOW.

About 500 People Injured in a Fight.

PIRRI, BIRG, Pa., Nov. 3. In a riot at Leavenworth Saturday night, Pol. Com. Pittz was fatally injured and Officer Culligan and fifteen of the rioters more or less hurt. The riot was started in a drunken brawl following a political meeting and 200 persons were engaged in the conflict.

THE ELECTION IN NEW YORK.

Over the Warrants Issued for Arrests of 1100.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. More than 150 warrants have issued for the apprehension of persons who are believed by the police to have been unlawfully registered. No attempt will be made to take them into custody until they present themselves at the polls to vote. Until Superintendents of Elections Davaopon this morning issued the arrest of 15 persons for registering illegally.

THE YELLOW PLATE.

Hammer Holzfinger in Operation with 1,000 Passengers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. The price of the Hammer Holzfinger at present is $1.00.

52 Boys Fine Grade all wool Cape Overcoats, worth $5.50.

75 Boys Extra Fine Quality all wool Cape Overcoats, worth $5.50, at $4.50.

These are the best trades ever brought before the public, as they are extra well-trimmed and of superior quality.

Boys' nice Ulsters and Silk Plush Caps, worth 50 cents, at 25 cents.

WALTERMANN'S

Boss Strictly One-Price Clothing House,

73, 75 and 77 Exchange Street.

142 Exchange Street.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1860.

ONE ADDITIONAL INTELLIGENCE EACH STANDING PAGE.

16 Great Contest to Settled To-day.

MAINE INQUIRIES.

FROM FARMINGTON:

Funeral of a Black Hawk War Veteran.
FARMINGTON, Nov. 2.—The funeral of Collier L. Jones, who died Friday, occurred yesterday from his late home in East Wilton. Deceased was 84 years old, and the last survivor of the Black Hawk war. Rev. F. Scarbird conducted the services and E. W. Woodman Post, G. A. R., attended and guard of honor. A large number of people attended the services. Deceased leaves a widow and three sons.

ACTION SUSTAINED

To Re-enter Parliament to Import Tea from Canada.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The Treasury Department has sustained the action of the Collector of Customs at Portland, Me., in refusing the application of the Berlin Mills company for permission to import from New Brunswick into Maine without the payment of duty, certain teams, wagons, etc., for temporary use in lumbering and then to return them to Canada. Many similar applications from persons on different portions of the Canadian and Mexican frontiers have also been refused on the ground of lack of legal authority.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

The Coroner's Jury Voted on the Whistler Accident.
WATERVILLE, Nov. 3.—The coroner's verdict on the death of Honore Flynn, who was killed by a train on Sunday, at Winslow, was that his death was accidental. No blame was attached to the railroad.

WEAVERS GO OUT.

Claiming They are Persecuted.
BIRKINBROOK, Nov. 3.—Fifty weavers at the York Mills, in Saco, left work to-day, claiming that it had ceased, Edward F. Smith, was overbearing and unmerciful in his demands. A committee was sent to Agent Norton, demanding the removal of his policy as exhibited on the tariff law. Equality.

FROM BIRKINBROOK.

Death of Well Known Citizen.
BIRKINBROOK, Nov. 3.—Lewis F. Small, a building contractor, aged sixty-six years, died last night. He leaves a wife and one son.

FROM PRESCOTT

Dwelling House Burned.
PRESCOTT, Nov. 3.—The dwelling of Mr. Walker Stevens, at North Prescott, was burned Saturday afternoon.

SLOVEN DEATH

OF Mr. Verplanck Darling.
PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—Verplanck Darling, aged about 63, Portland representative of the Bagot Industrial Journal, died suddenly this evening of heart disease.

FROM PORTLAND.

Young Woman Burned.
PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—A Scandinavian named Ullrichsen was found concealed up Fore street to night with an ugly cut on his head. The injury was not serious. He stated Thomas Conley of striking him with a bottle. Conley was arrested.

NOTE ARRESTED.

Police Arrested from a Gun.
GARDINER, Nov. 3.—Three boys were arrested for breaking into freight cars in the Boston & Maine yard and stealing goods.

DR. COOK AGAIN.

Under Arrest for Robberies.
BIRKINBROOK, Nov. 3.—Doctor Alben E. Cook, who was once arrested for intoxication, pleaded guilty to the charge and the trial was continued.

SERIOUS FIRE IN HOTELS.

Frightened Guests Rush Out to Save their Lives.

A Heavy Loss Caused by the Fiery Demon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Fire was discovered this morning in Hunter Bros. & Co.'s paint shop, under the Grand Hotel and extended through the thickness of the block. It spread to the upper end of the block and were burst from the roof and windows. The fire soon confined the fire within the block occupied by the Burlingame and Grand Hotels. About 150 feet of the roof of the block were consumed. By the time fire had reached along the eastern end of the block and raged to the west end of the Grand Hotel. The western end was saved. The Grand Hotel was opened in 1852 and was considered one of the best in the world. It was four stories high and had a frontage of 200 feet on Market street. Two years ago about half of the block was leased to other parties and called the Burlingame Hotel.

Loud Explosions.

and large volumes of smoke poured out, almost overwhelming the houses. These were followed by a roar like gunpowder. By the time fire had reached along the eastern end of the block and were burst from the roof and windows. The fire soon confined the fire within the block occupied by the Burlingame and Grand Hotels. About 150 feet of the roof of the block were consumed. By the time fire had reached along the eastern end of the block and raged to the west end of the Grand Hotel. The western end was saved. The Grand Hotel was opened in 1852 and was considered one of the best in the world. It was four stories high and had a frontage of 200 feet on Market street. Two years ago about half of the block was leased to other parties and called the Burlingame Hotel.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Including buildings, etc., is estimated at $300,000. The fire is believed to be due to spontaneous combustion of inflammable materials. A fine collection of minerals and exhibits of the State Board of Trade will be lost.

15,000 Dollars.

There was a dollar of insurance on the Grand. The heaviest losses are at Burlingame Hotel building and furniture, $35,000; Grand Hotel, stock, $30,000; O. P. Dowding, loss to stock, $30,000.

MASSACHUSETTS.

LOWELL, Nov. 3.—The speculators in the Merrimack Mills, the largest corporation in the city, started to work this morning on a reduction of fifteen cents on a day's wage. The drawing-in girls have also been put down. The operative rate is now reduced to twenty cents. It is feared here that the manufacturers will roll throughout the state has agreed to make a reduction of 15¢ along the line.

Closes in Lowell.

LOWELL, Nov. 3.—Several speculators in the Merrimack Mills, the largest corporation in the city, started to work this morning on a reduction of fifteen cents on a day's wage. The drawing-in girls have also been put down. The operative rate is now reduced to twenty cents. It is feared here that the manufacturers will roll throughout the state has agreed to make a reduction of 15¢ along the line.

Closes in Lowell.

LOWELL, Nov. 3.—In the superior tourist hotel, Jonathan Higgins and James McElroy, of Lowell, were sentenced to one year and one month, or fifteen months, for assault on Mary Campbell, a Negro girl, was found guilty of liquor infraction.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Eastern Railroad Presidents Meet in Boston.
BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The Eastern railroad trustees met this noon and selected general agents for their to those of Western railroads for certificates of admissions, but declined to name the names of the railroads and prices. They have the right to do so to consider the offers.

Massachusetts under the Austral as bullet train, which will be the principal line on all three State lines to the main the same as last year.

A vigorous campaign was waged for Governor and in all Congressional districts the Democrats won the house of the Senate and the Legislature, while the House more than usual credit is not reaching the result. But the probability seems to be that Governor Everett will be elected by a small plurality. The race of the Republican State ticket will be decided by the national majority. The Democrats will gain one member of Congress.

WASHINGTON.

SENATORS, with Pro-Unionists—State of Massachusetts, Nov. 3.—Congressmen and county officers, including members of the Legislature, "etc.", will be voted for at the election to-morrow.
The Republicans candidate for Congress
will probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

INDIANA.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State of Indiana, Nov. 3.—The Farmers' and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at the election to-morrow.
The Republicans candidate for Congress
will probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

OHIO.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State of Ohio, Nov. 3.—The Farmers' and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

MINNESOTA.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State of Minnesota, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

MISSOURI.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State of Missouri, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

NEW YORK.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State of New York, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

SENATORS, with Gov. Congressmen—State
of Vermont, Nov. 3.—The Farmers'
and Anti-Slavery Association, which includes
U. S. Senator, "etc.", will be voted for at
the election to-morrow. The Republicans candidate for Congress will
probably be re-elected. It is generally conceded that both branches of
the legislature will be Republicans by a large
margin.

VERMONT.

